The Suites

Your wedding reception will take place in one of our two Function Suites. The Balmoral & Richmond, or the Kent & Windsor Suite. Each suite consists of two rooms each capable of either being used alone or with the acoustic wall open to form one larger room.

Each wedding is unique and is arranged to give 'you' what 'you' are looking for but as a general guide on arrival you and your guests will enter the room allocated as 'reception room' for welcoming reception drinks.

When your party have all arrived you will greet your guests as they pass into the dining room where your wedding breakfast will be served by our banqueting staff.

Following the meal and speeches you will accompany your guests back into the reception room, for further drinks, whilst the main room is reset by our staff ready for your evening celebration.

It is common for more guests to be invited to the evening celebration than during the day and it is then that the two rooms become one for your comfort and convenience.

The Suites

150

Balmoral

Located at the front of the building. The Balmoral Suite is our main Ballroom. It is the largest of our suites and can accommodate up to 150 guests for your wedding breakfast and in excess of that number of guests for your evening reception.

80

Richmond

This is located adjacent to the Balmoral Suite and is capable of accommodating 80 guests for a wedding breakfast. The acoustic walls couple this suite to the Balmoral and Monza suites to enable a much larger occasion.

80

Kent

This attractively finished Suite enjoys its own entrance foyer at the rear of the building. It can accommodate 80 guests for your wedding breakfast and well in excess of that number when the acoustic wall is opened to the Windsor Suite. A portable dance floor enables you to dance the night away.

Windsor

The Windsor shares its entrance with the Kent suite and when they are joined together forms an ideal venue for a medium sized wedding. With its own bar facilities 130 can party the night away.

Civil Ceremony

Wellington Park holds the necessary licences to hold Civil Wedding Ceremonies.

The following Suites are Licensed and approved for the Solemnisation of Marriages.
